

Spirit Yo-yo Contest Terms and Conditions

This document outlines the terms and conditions for attendees of Spirit Yo-yo Contest. By purchasing a ticket or entering as a competitor, you agree to what's detailed below.

- 1. Safety: Do not bring into the venue: Weapons, explosives, fireworks, laser pointers, illegal substances or paraphernalia, untrained pets, items promoting hate speech or offensive content, or other dangerous or disruptive items.

Harassment, intoxication, and unlawful or unsafe behavior by any attendee, is subject to venue expulsion at the organizer's discretion.

- 2. Media and Photography: By attending the event, guests and contestants agree to being filmed, recorded, or photographed for promotional or archival purposes. The Spirit Yo-yo Contest organizers reserve the rights to such media.

If you're a competitor and have a serious reason (such as for religious purposes) for not being filmed or photographed, please message the Spirit Yo-yo Contest team through our contact form.

- 3. Cancellation and Refunds: We cannot guarentee refunds once tickets or registration is purchased. This includes if the purchaser changes their mind, is sick, experiences travel delays, etc. If there's been a mistake with your purchase or you have a reason for needing a refund you'd like to ask about, please contact the organizers.

In the event that the event is cancelled by Spirit Yo-yo Contest organizers or by circumstances outside of organizer control, the Spirit Yo-yo Contest team will make an effort to contact customers and refund them to the best of our abilities.

- 4. Legal: Attendees assume all risks associated with attending the event. The organizers shall not be held responsible for personal injury, property damage, theft, or any loss incurred while attending.

5. Contestant Behavior: Contestants in all divisions are expected to behave in an appropriate and professional manner. Any inappropriate behavior, whether it be on stage or off stage, can result in disqualification from the competition. If a breach of conduct is reported and confirmed by Spirit Yo-yo Contest representatives, the breaching player can be disqualified or removed from the competition.

Players may not make inappropriate gestures during their routines. This includes, but is not limited to:

Inappropriate hand gestures (e.g. middle fingers being shown)
Indecency (e.g. removal of clothes during a routine)
Demonstrations of violence towards others

Please note: Spirit Yo-yo Contest does not tolerate bullying or discrimination of any kind. Please report any instances of bullying or discrimination to a Spirit Yo-yo Contest representative and we will investigate and make a final decision. Please treat other contest attendees with respect and decency, and let's make yo-yo an inclusive sport for everyone.

Please do not use:

- Music that contains inappropriate language (curse words, derogatory slurs)
- Music that addresses inappropriate themes (violence, rape, self-harm, sexual content)
- Music glorifying (including but not limited to) violence, rape, suicide, killing, murder, genocide, war.
- Music that explicitly implies sexual activity (heavy breathing, ecstatic noises or screams)
- Music that discriminates against anyone – yoyo is an inclusive sport, and discrimination of any kind is not tolerated.

SPIRIT
YO-YO CONTEST